CITY IN BRIEF

Bicycle Is Stolen—J. L. George, of No. 529 Silver street, reported to the police Monday afternoon that his bicycle had been stolen. He gave the department a description of the wheel.

Residence Addition—A building permit was issued Monday to L. M. Shadaker for a residence addition on Cherry street at an estimated cost of $190. A permit was also taken out by Madeline C. Pine for a residence addition on Beane street at an estimated cost of $200.

Football Will Attend—Former Commander Gilbert V. Paschall, of McGinnis Post, No. 152, American Legion, expects to go to Kansas City to attend the third annual national convention of the American Legion which is to be held there October 21, November 1 and 2. State and military leaders from the allied nations have promised to be present.

Call from Urbana—The local police received a telephone call from the Urbana department, Monday afternoon, asking them to be on the lookout for a man who broke into some lockers in a railroad camp and stole about $250. The name and description of the suspected party was given the police and it was said he bought a ticket for Marion. Officers met train No. 16, on the Erie, but failed to find the fellow and it is supposed he got off at some station before reaching here.

Kansas Veterans Talks—John King was enrolled as a member at the meeting of Cooper Post, No. 117, G. A. R., Monday afternoon in the Junior Order hall. Mr. King was a member of B company, 17th O. V. I. The death of Comrade John J. Smith, of Caledonia, was reported at this meeting. H. C. Robertson, of Humboldt, Nebraska, a kinsman at the home of John W. Hines, was a guest of the meeting and gave a brief talk on the post of which he is a member and also of his town. Thirty members were present at Monday's meeting.

Centennial Committee's Visit—Dr. E. H. Haffensperger, James A. Knapp and John M. Brigel, members of the Marion Centennial committee, were in Bucyrus Monday in attendance at the Bucyrus centennial in progress this week. The visit was made to secure pointers and suggestions for the Marion centennial to be celebrated next year. The party returned highly pleased with the management of the Bucyrus celebration and its splendid program of festivities. Hundreds of relics of the early days of the town are displayed in the show windows of the downtown section by which the history of Bucyrus may be easily traced.

GALLION NOW IS PAST NINETY YEARS OF AGE

It Will Celebrate Centennial September 10, 1931.

The centennial celebration now in progress at Bucyrus—beginning yesterday and to end with a concert on Thursday night—is the forerunner of another celebration less than ten years from now, assuming that the then residents of Gallion will be sufficiently interested in the one hundredth anniversary of its founding to observe the event with due pomp and eclat. Coincident with this celebration will be observance of the one hundred and eightieth anniversary of Perry's victory on Lake Erie. Gallion was laid out on September 10, 1831, by John Ruhl, or a little over ninety years ago, says Monday's Gallion Inquirer.

The Ruhls are remembered among the pioneers of Crawford county as substantial and progressive citizens, and their descendants, including Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hart, all now deceased, were conspicuous in the development of Gallion. John Ruhl who came from York county, Pennsylvania, had prospered, and in those days was considered wealthy, purchased much of the land this city now stands on, and which was included in Section 31, Township 20 and Range 20. The center of this section is two blocks west of the Public Square or at Lincoln Way west and Boston street. The northeast quarter of this section he sold to his son Jacob, and the southeast quarter of the same section he sold to his son Michael. This land extended from Boston street east to South street.

John Ruhl purchased the northeast quarter of the section from John Brown. The land was then a part of Sandusky township, Richland county, and was acquired by John Ruhl for a consideration of $1,500, of which $300 was in hand on the first of the following September and $200 on September 1, 1832. Ruhl received six hens, one rooster and six geese when he was given possession of the land, and was given other concessions, some of them before he took formal possession in April, 1832. An acre of the purchase was excluded for a church yard, on the southwest corner of the purchase.

ROBERT AMES BENNET

Psychic! Baffling! Mysterious! Amusing!

It was a mental case that puzzled the great brain specialist, Dr. Kirkland. He was quite sure that the man wasn't himself. The man was equally positive that he was. The solution is very hard to guess. At times it looks as though all the characters might be a little daft. You will finish with a sense of satisfaction in a thoroughly up-to-date story which introduces a novel theme, some very odd situations and highly amusing complications. Will appear serially in these columns.

HAIL COLUMBIA! HE'S REAL PEEVED ABOUT IT

Weatherman Rings the Bell at Forty Degrees.

Marionites were handed a sample of all brands of weather Monday by an unkind weatherman who carried his grudge over until this morning and folks shivered in the teeth of a chilly blast on the way to work.

Bushings, rain and hail made up yesterday's weather card. Fifty-five hundredths or a trifle more than half an inch of rain fell Monday, coupled with a generous shower of hail. The mercury rang the bell at forty during the night, making a drop of twenty-nine degrees since Monday afternoon.

Q.—What famous movie star, who every one thought was single, recently announced that she had been married twice in two years?

A.—Perhaps the biggest surprise in motion picture domestic relations was sprung by May Allison recently when she admitted that she had been married twice in two years. Even her family knew nothing of it until her announcement. On the 1st of December, 1918, she married Colonel William Stephenson in Santa Ana, California. She met the colonel at a dinner given in her honor by naval officers. This marriage was annulled in February, 1920. On Thanksgiving day of last year May married Robert Ellis, a well-known film director, at Greenwich, Connecticut.

Q.—What two famous stars who have made both fortunes and fame in this country are not citizens of the United States?

A.—Tony Moreno and Charlie Chaplin. Moreno was born in Madrid, Spain, in 1888, and has lived in this country since he was fourteen years old. He speaks Spanish now only with an effort. Chaplin was born in Paris, France, of English parents in 1889. He came to this country in his early twenties. Neither of these men have become naturalized citizens. Moreno is a subject of Spain, and Chaplin is still an English citizen.

Q.—Is Pola Negri married?

A.—This famous German actress is twenty-eight old and single. It is reported that she is engaged to a very wealthy German.

Q.—How many pictures has Champion Jack Dempsey appeared in?

A.—Jack's only picture was entitled "Dare Devil Jack." He is not on the screen at present.

Q.—How long has Mary Pickford been married to Fairbanks?

A.—Mary received her divorce from Owen Moore in March, 1920.

SPANISH BEAT REBEL MOORS

Continue Advance Against the Morocco Tribesmen.

ONE THOUSANDS ARE SLAIN IN BATTLE

Action Lasts Fifteen Hours and Results in Moors Being Routed.

Melilla, Morocco, Oct. 4.—Continuing their advance against the Moorish tribesmen, the Spanish troops engaged the rebels along a front of six miles on the plains before Zeluán, killing 1,000 Moors. The action Monday lasted fifteen hours.

Efforts by the Spanish troops to reach and relieve the Spanish outpost at Tiza have also proved successful, a convoy penetrating to Tiza and supplying it with munitions and provisions after fierce fighting at close quarters with the Moors, lasting several hours.

Four columns of Spaniards, totaling 14,000 men, were engaged against the Moors. The Spanish were supported by sixteen batteries of artillery and several heavy guns.

According to natives, the Moors had intended to attack Tiza, which they knew was running short of food and munitions. The rapid movements of the Spanish columns, however, and the cooperation of the fleet with the military, throwing high explosive shells into the Moroccan lines, caused heavy losses to the tribesmen and compelled their eventual retreat.

Trenches Filled with Dead. Madrid, Oct. 4.—An official communication issued yesterday, concerning operations by the Spanish army in the region of Melilla says that following intense artillery preparation various Spanish columns acting in combination captured from the Moors the important positions of Beni, Uadadad, and Danane, in the neighborhood of Beganau. The communication adds that the trenches of the Moors were filled with dead.

An official communication received today from General Beranger, Spanish high commissioner in Morocco, says:

"Today was a glorious day for our arms. The bravery with which our troops fought resulted in beating off numerous bands of the enemy. Not only did we carry the fight against the large concentrations of Gueyana and Rifians but we occupied positions which benefit materially our line for a further advance. The capture of Beni enables us to command the valley of Beganau, which will make easier our future operations."

Protected Home Circle. The Protected Home Circle met at the Junior Order hall on west Center street last night. Most of the evening was spent in discussing plans for the membership drive to be put on by the booster committee. Plans for a Halloween social to be held on October 31, were discussed.

NEW AMERICAN CONSUL GENERAL

CALL IS MADE BY PRESIDENT

Continued from Page One. That paid by the federal government. Secretary Hoover, yesterday made public telegrams from Mayors W. B. Fitzgerald, of Cleveland, and Albert Peters, of Boston, announcing the formation of emergency unemployment committees.

The problem of unemployment probably will be presented to the American Bankers' association at its convention this week in Los Angeles.

Bankers May Hear Plans. Henry R. Robinson, of Los Angeles, chairman of the organization committee of the conference, has left here for Los Angeles to attend the convention, and it is expected he will convene and the convention the problem and plans under discussion by the conference.

"Possibility of reducing the number of the nation's unemployed through use of unskilled workers in the construction of new highways and in the maintenance of roads already built, was discussed at a meeting here today of the executive committee of the National Association of State Highway Officials. To aid in this effort it was proposed to seek from the war department road building machinery, of which the department has a surplus.

A resolution was adopted petitioning President Harding and members of congress to support the Phillips bill, now pending in the senate, which would distribute to the states, for use in road building, 1,500 tractors. It was stated that the taxpayers of the country already had paid for the tractors in their purchase of Liberty bonds, and that the tractors no longer were needed by the department.

Traction Office Looted. Hamilton, O., Oct. 4.—Two men held up Sam Meeks, ticket agent, and robbed the safe at the Ohio Electric traction office of $1,000.

Haul Made by Yeggs. Dayton, O., Oct. 4.—Yeggs broke open the safe of the Lyric theater, behind the night watchman and a scrub woman and escaped with $1,200, according to a report made to police headquarters.

One Killed, Two Hurt. Dayton, O., Oct. 4.—John Kelly, 45, Springfield, was instantly killed, and John Mahoney, 25, Springfield, and Kelly's 6-year-old son were injured when an automobile in which they were riding plunged through a bridge seven miles east of Dayton.

Slain by Policemen. Cleveland, Oct. 4.—Police Sergeant Wedon shot and killed C. A. Munn, Pittsburgh, after half-mile chase. The shooting came a moment after the victim had crashed into a telephone pole with an automobile loaded with liquor and had leaped from the wrecked machine and fled.

Methodists Name Woman. Marion, O., Oct. 4.—Appointment of Miss Elizabeth Reavis of Massillon as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal mission at Columbia Heights, Massillon suburb, the first woman in Ohio to be put in charge of a Methodist parsonage, was announced by Bishop W. F. Anderson of the Cincinnati area.

Attention Indicted. Newark, O., Oct. 4.—Ex-Mayor Herbert A. Atherton was indicted on bribery charges by the grand jury which reported after having been in session 15 days. Atherton was recently removed from office by Governor Davis following a hearing of charges preferred by the law and order league. Leo S. Pemberton, former safety director, was also indicted on a similar charge.

IS CONFIDENT OF OUTCOME

Marian McArdle Believes She Will Get Liberty.

MRS. KABER MAY BE CALLED AS A WITNESS

State Depends on Statements of Defendant at Time of Arrest for Her Conviction.

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—Youthful and pretty Marian McArdle, on trial before Judge Homer G. Powell as a principal in the murder of her stepfather, Daniel F. Kaber, wealthy publisher, two years ago, feels confident of the outcome, as the hour for the taking of testimony begins. On jurors, five men and five women, were tentatively seated, this morning.

"How can they convict me for keeping my mother's secret?" she asked the International News Service correspondent, resting in her cell just before the trial opened. "I only did what any girl who loved her mother would have done. I neither planned nor plotted Mr. Kaber's death, but I didn't love him. How could I when he was so cruel to my mother?"

The jurors in examination showed none of the prejudice so strongly displayed in the trial of Mrs. Catherine Eva Kaber, mother of the youthful defendant, who is now serving a life sentence in Marysville reformatory for her part in the crime.

Whether Mrs. Kaber will be called as a witness for the defense was not definitely settled this morning, despite prior positive assurances by Messrs. Francis W. Poulson and Louis E. Hart, Marian's attorneys, that this would be done.

"We will wait and see," said Mr. Poulson this morning. "If it appears that the hearing of Mrs. Kaber's life will help our client, we will call her, otherwise we will not. I do not believe that the state can make out a case against our client, anyhow."

The state will rely principally upon the evidence of detectives who have heard the statements made by Marian in New York when she and her mother were arrested and the confessions of her alleged accomplices, Brimley Colvett, alleged "poison queen," who is said to have hired the assassins; Mrs. Mary Brickell, her aged grandmother; and Salvator Calza, self-confessed stabber of the invalid publisher, who is now serving a life term in the Ohio penitentiary.

Emphasizing the need for practical results, the report observes: "While it is natural for individuals to turn to the government when economic pressure distresses them, it must be kept in mind that jobs can not be made by government proclamation, and that men to be added to pay rolls must be taken through existing instrumentalities of production, distribution and merchandising as we find them."

The report holds that for unemployment relief, the country can not look to agriculture nor to mining. Until retail conditions are improved, it does not feel there is much opportunity to increase employment in the field of general manufacturing. The railroads can not assist until financed. Furthermore, the report doubts the permanent efficacy of some of the emergency measures recommended by the conference.

"Employment agencies and 'split hours'—the sharing of employment by those employed with those in idleness—do not provide any addition to the sum total of employment," the report observes.

Hence, it sees construction as the starting point and key-industry in considering industrial rehabilitation.

Considered Several Lines. The report considers home building, road building, public works, public utilities and railroad work in the last connection, saying:

"Relief should be afforded to the railroads by the prompt passage of the railroad funding bill."

Discussing the principal factors in construction, which are financing materials and cost of labor, the report says:

"It is necessary to call public attention to the complete disorganization and suppression of the construction industry during the war. Fuel was withheld and transportation facilities were denied. Finances were diverted and labor alienated."

When the nation again was ready for construction, the report states, it was inevitable the sudden demand for men and materials should force up prices. The price situation is declared to have been made worse by "inadequate transportation, prohibitive freight rates, fuel famine and a further diversion of credit to commercial and speculative activities." These, and freight embargoes through priorities for coal, caused sudden cessation of building activities, and when prices broke in the face of an arrested demand, the public assumed a waiting attitude to see how far downward the trend would go, the report observes.

Wants Free Credit. With regard to credit, the report says: "Money must be made available on reasonable terms and in reasonable volume and free from demand for bonuses and commissions of a questionable character."

It seeks reduction of freight rates, declaring the increase on building materials was fifty per cent. during the war compared with twenty-five per cent. increase in other industries.

In drafting its report, sub-committee members listed the following as a synopsis of recommendations: "Urges upon congress that in all financial legislation it recognize the principle of using long term deposits for home and long term loans."

"That congress be urged to empower the postal savings fund authorities to accept under proper safeguards first mortgage loans on residence construction as security for postal savings deposits in the various banks."

"Secure a readjustment in freight rates on construction materials sufficient at least to put them on a basis of increase over pre-war which will not be in excess of increases on other commodities."

"Urges upon congress an amendment of the transportation act effecting the interstate commerce commission not to declare without full hearings of all parties interested an emergency which will give preference of priority in transportation."

Wants Agreement Reviewed. "Urges the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor to review agreements between local unions and contractors in cities where building is carried on under closed shop conditions and secure removal from these agreements of clauses whose effect is to increase the cost of handling or unreasonably limit the number of apprentices."

"Urges upon labor the necessity for a prompt and reasonable readjustment of wages where such readjustment had not taken place and improve upon employers the necessity for dealing fairly with this question."

"Through proposed community conferences, insist that all methods of practices which unfairly increase construction costs must be abandoned."

"Push investigations of unlawful or injurious combinations and agreements in finance, building construction and production of materials and bring these promptly to definite conclusions."

"Urges all cities to co-operate with the department of commerce to obtain standardized building codes."

"Request Secretary of Commerce Hoover to make arrangements for community conferences on home building and construction generally in all communities of the country."

"Through proposed community conferences encourage prospective home builders to investigate local conditions and where found satisfactory impress upon them the desirability of proceeding with their work."

"Urges upon departments of the government the necessity for furnishing intelligent and accurate trade statistics promptly and urge upon branches of the construction industry the necessity for co-operation with the proper government departments in gathering the necessary information."

"Place under construction as soon as possible all federal works for which appropriations are already made, at the same time urging all state, county and municipal bodies to do likewise. In doing this the federal authorities should adhere to existing precedents for administering public works, especially public roads."

"The efficiency and ability of the bureau of public roads, which have been thoroughly demonstrated and have secured the confidence and cooperation of the states, must not be wasted by veiling construction administration in some other agency. Economical road building requires specialized engineering ability, now centralized in the bureau of public roads."

"Place the federal power commission in a state to function properly so that private power prospects can be passed and put under way."

"Make payment of claims due the railroads and settle other existing claims so that these agencies can undertake immediate improvement and new work."

Building Trades at Work. Chicago, Oct. 4.—Thousands of Chicago building workers who have been idle all summer, due to a strike and lockout, returned to work, greatly improving the city's unemployment situation. Some sentiment has been stirred up, urging Governor Len Small to throw open armories for the shelter of the men out of work, but the executive has taken no action.

WOULD STRENGTHEN THE RAILROAD ACT

Cummins May Urge Further Strike Legislation.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Congress must either "put teeth" into the Keck-Cummins railroad law or admit it is a failure and repeal it, Senator Cummins of Iowa declared.

Complete reshaping of the government's railroad policy, probably at the next session of congress, as a result of the strike threat of railroad employees and the many attacks upon the present law, was forecast by Cummins, part author of the measure.

The demand for restrictive legislation will be renewed whether the strike now being threatened occurs or not, Cummins indicated. Provisions penalizing railroads or others defying authority of the railway labor board, limitation of the interstate commerce commission's control over rate-making and repeal of the guaranteed return to the roads will all be sought, Cummins said, when congress takes up the administration's $700,000,000 railroad relief bill.

HOOVER HAS PLAN FOR COAL INDUSTRY

Would Stabilize the Business in United States.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Back of the current effort of Secretary of Commerce Hoover to assure in advance peaceful adjustment of mine wars next spring, when scales in both the bituminous and anthracite fields expire, is declared to be a general plan to stabilize the coal industry of the United States for all time.

The secretary's effort is directed to obtaining an agreement now that both sides will submit to government arbitration next spring if unable to agree on wages, which fact, announced to the country, would be assurance there would be no cessation of mining. His proposal does not conflict with the decision of the mine workers at Indianapolis to postpone until February the presentation of demands to the operators.

Hoover's ultimate plan to bring the coal business to a point of permanent stabilization involves not only coordinating the energies of operators and union chiefs, but those of the railroads and other large consumers.

Akron Accident.

Akron, Oct. 4.—Coming down west Market street last night, an automobile whose driver, today, is being sought by the police, plunged into a house at the corner of Howard street and buried itself in the cellar. Several machines barely escaped being damaged as the automobile, running wild, dashed into the building.

Taft Takes Judicial Oath.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Administration of the judicial oath to William Howard Taft, the new chief justice of the United States, marked the reconvening of the supreme court for the regular fall term. Mr. Taft thereby became the first chief justice to have previously occupied the highest executive office in the nation. The oath supplemented the constitutional oath administered July 11, soon after the appointment of the former president.

Arraignment was set for Wednesday, at which time, according to the court, Arbuckle must be present.

WORLD'S BREAD CROPS ESCAPED

Erratic Outputs of Agricultural Products Noted.

VARIATION DUE TO HEAT ACCUMULATION

Fruit Crops of Country Are Hard Hit—Weather Blamed for the Poor Cotton Crop.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Phenomenal heat accumulation which has marked weather conditions all over the northern hemisphere this year has produced equally remarkable and erratic outputs of agricultural crops, according to summaries of American and foreign production compiled for and by the agricultural department.

The world's bread crops, curiously enough, came to abundant fruition in spite of drought and heat which persisted all during the growing season. The world in 1931, up to Sept. 30, it was indicated, would have a total wheat crop of 157,000,000 bushels greater than in 1930.

By another freak fruit crops, almost in a world-wide sense, met havoc from cold in a season which has set new records everywhere for solar heat. This paradox was occasioned by the fact that last February the sun got at its work of bringing spring weeks in advance of normal, and trees and shrubs responded by budding out and finally coming into bloom by March in nearly all areas where fruit is grown.

Frosts could not be averted on all the night, however, and this year the United States will produce about 100,000,000 bushels of apples, against 244,000,000 bushels in 1930. Only the orchards of Pacific coast, northern New England and northern New York escaped.

Cotton, however, suffered greatly, and agricultural department experts assign the weather as perhaps the principal cause for a 50 per cent reduction in output.

European fruit and subsidiary crops were sharply reduced, the department finds, although the bread grains survived. Their success, it was said, was due to the fact that they were chiefly fallow crops, which grew well in the mild winter. The spring sown grains, root and forage, including oats and barley wheat, in the United States as elsewhere, lived through but yielded little.

"OPEN SHOP" FIGHT IN CHICAGO LOOMS

Associated Builders Prepare for a Campaign.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—A complete acceptance by Chicago's organized labor of the Landis wage award or an "open-shop" city was the unofficial ultimatum decided upon, yesterday, by the Associated Builders and the Building Construction Employers' association, at a "star chamber" conference. It was also widely reported that the employers intend to raise a fund to conduct an "open-shop" war on the carpenters' union, which has been belligerent throughout the wage negotiations.

"The secret" session was held, of course, to give the employers opportunities to freely express their plans. "Boycott" of building for a period of six months also loomed as one of the employers' "war measures," should labor reject the award.

A conciliatory tone was adopted by the Chicago Building Trades council at a meeting held during the afternoon. A threat to expel the hoisting engineers' union from organized labor was made by the union leaders as a means to compel the workmen to accept the award. Construction work throughout the city, meanwhile, is at a standstill.

To Have Milk.

Akron, Oct. 4.—Children attending Akron schools are to have milk. This decision was reached today by the Akron Home & School League members who approved a plan to raise the required finances. The league has 5,000 members and will aid the schools in home research and educational work.

HUSBAND THOUGHT DEAD GETS DIVORCE

Cameron D. McClelland's application in supreme court for a permanent decree of divorce revealed that his wife had married George T. Graham, of Oakshosh, Wisconsin, after she had received a report that McClelland had ended his own life. The wife was McClelland's chief witness. She believed her husband had killed himself, and so she married again, to be confronted with divorce proceedings when Husband No. 1 turned out to be very much alive. A fifteen-month-old baby is the tragic victim of the affair.

RED CROSS MEETING TO OPEN TONIGHT

About 5,000 Delegates Will Be in Attendance.

Columbus, Oct. 4.—Although the national convention of the American Red Cross will open at the Consumers' state fairgrounds here tonight, the greater portion of the more than 5,000 delegates will not arrive until tomorrow.

The program for tonight's session includes the welcoming address by Governor Davis, Mayor Thomas and Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of Ohio State university. Dr. Livingston Farrand, president elect of Cornell university and member of the central committee, American Red Cross, who is a guest at the home of Dr. Thompson, is to deliver an address on "The call to the nations."

Ex-soldiers, in uniform, are meeting delegates at the railroad stations and are directing the visitors to lodging places.

The opening session was preceded by committee meetings participated in by division managers, national officials and roll-call directors.

Wholesale Arrests.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 4.—Wholesale arrests of millionaire bankers, business men and labor leaders were started here yesterday, following the indictment of forty men in connection with a series of "financial crashes" early this year. ## TAFT BECOMES CHIEF JUSTICE

Takes Judicial Oath and Begins Duties.

FEDERAL SUPREME COURT RECONVENES

Number of Important Cases Are in Hands of Court—A Session Today.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Administration of the judicial oath to William Howard Taft, the new chief justice of the United States, marked the reconvening, yesterday, of the supreme court for the regular fall term.

The oath was administered to Mr. Taft, the first chief justice to have occupied the highest executive office in the nation, by the senator as associate justice, Joseph McKenna. The administration of the oath, the final step in the induction of a new chief justice, was attended by all of the century-old ceremony attached to the nation's highest tribunal.

In addition to the half dozen anti-trust cases awaiting decision, there are pending several boundary and irrigation disputes between states, as well as cases between states alleging trade discriminations, numerous questions arising out of government operation of railroads during the world war, a railroad merger case, several cases testing the rights of organized labor during strikes, as well as responsibility for losses resulting from acts of violence during strikes, challenges by states of the powers of the interstate commerce commission in rate-making and railroad control, constitutionality of the prohibitory tax imposed by the government upon child labor and numerous issues arising out of the enforcement of national prohibition.

Selection of William S. Stanberry, of Washington, to be clerk of the court, was decided on yesterday and will be announced tomorrow. He has been acting clerk since the death of James D. Maher last August.

Arguments in cases pending before the court will be started today, with two important cases listed. The first on the docket is an appeal taken by R. D. Langan to prevent the annexation of his property by the city of Louisville, Kentucky, which has been urging that the case be expedited because actual annexation of adjacent territory can only be accomplished after further legislation, which can not be enacted while legislation is pending.

Notice that the government would move the dismissal of the Keynote Watch Case company anti-trust suit was filed, yesterday, with the court. The case has been before the court since 1918, involving monopoly in restraint of trade.

Charges With Wife-Murder. Lakeport, Cal., Oct. 4.—John A. Spencer, retired clergyman, went on trial here on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his wife, Mrs. Emma Spencer, whose body was taken from Clear lake on the night of July 27, after she had gone boating with her husband. The prosecution will claim that Spencer killed his wife to obtain possession of her property, while the defense will contend that Mrs. Spencer's death was accidental.

Cotton Prices Break. New York, Oct. 4.—The cotton market here made a sensational break yesterday following the publication of the official crop condition figures by the department of agriculture. After selling up to $27.35 for December delivery, a new high record, prices broke $2.50 per bale.

Bandits Rob Messenger. Scranton, Pa., Oct. 4.—Police from all parts of the city are searching for three auto bandits who knocked Thomas Gates, a bank messenger, unconscious and stole a sack containing checks representing $10,000. There was no cash in the sack.

Dr. D. O. Weeks has returned from a business trip to Portland, Maine.

first of a series of monthly class suppers last night at the church basement. The oyster supper was attended by about seventy-five members. Following the supper, the meeting was in charge of the class president, J. E. Oliphant. Mr. Oliphant gave a talk in which he outlined the program and policy of the class for the coming year. He said that the class slogan for the coming year would be "a minimum of 100 attendance at the class—and that they would strive to increase class enrollment to 200."

In accordance with this, the class was divided into East and West teams. These two teams were each divided into ten committees and a chairman named for each one.

 tice, R. A. Martin, C. E. Grant, A.
 Gracely, H. Lister, F. K. Morral, J.
 W. Parland and Morris Kline.

These teams will, through their committeemen and members, strive to double the class enrollment. Ten members of the class will be named as serving committee for each dinner.

Following this the other class officers gave short talks and heads of committees on entertainment and program spoke.

 nished by the class orchestra, led by William Dowler.

Come in and see the October Maisonnets!

You must see the Maisquette apron dresses, versed in The Ladies' Home Journal for October, to appreciate the colorful charm of these percales and gingham and the fine workmanship with which they are finished.

You must try them on to realize the comingness of the styles and the trimness of the fit. A new exclusive feature, the Maisquette form-fitting pleats under the bust, perfects the hang of the skirt and a fit across the bust.

But not until you use Maisonnets through the wear and tear of ordinary household routine, will you know their comfort, their economy, and the ease with which they can be laundered and still keep their colors bright.

For these reasons, women who have tried Maisonnets are enthusiastically adding to their supply as the new models come out.

Hence it would be well for you to make your selection early from these October models that have just come in—to be sure of getting what you want. This store is the only place in town where you can get them.

THE HUB OF COMMERCE.
Daily Proverb: "By a divine instinct men's minds toward ending danger."
A New York hotel is said to have established a "thinkers' room" on its top floor. That may be where it sends its patrons after they have paid their bills.
According to a writer, a janitor speaks the nearest correct English spoken in Boston. But that's nothing. It's conceded that the nearest perfect English heard in Great Britain is spoken in Cork.
Government bonds are going up and the market for railroad securities is strengthening. Isn't it about time to mix a little optimism in with the somewhat general tone of pessimism?
The pride evinced by the statement of the Chicago chief of police to the effect that only half of the Windy City policemen are bootleggers might be taken to indicate that he considers that a sort of vindication of the force.
Our idea of another thing not worth worrying about is the possibility that the report that the "art of gum chewing" is declining is founded on fact.
If we are to credit reports, there has been a thirty per cent. shrinkage this year under last in taxes on income and excess profits. This simply couldn't have been possible had all of us been paraphraser.
An exchange says orchestras in some Ohio movie houses are going to strike, but it's our guess that one kind of a strike which isn't liable to throw scares into their respective communities.
Here's something out of the ordinary. An exchange tells us that a New Jersey school board has ordered teachers not to wear expensive clothes in the school-room. Is this a bit of humor on the part of the board, or has it become imbued with the notion that its teachers are miracle workers?
"The calls from good farmer friends," remarked the Bellefontaine Examiner last Saturday, "have added much enjoyment to fair week for the Examiner." The music of the big round dollars dropping into the till.
If the time ever comes, as a scientist insists, when a pound of coal is sufficient for the winter's fuel supply of the average household, the price will probably be boosted sufficiently to bring the same returns—that is, if the present-day trend obtains.
Statistics show that there are 175 church denominations in the United States. Isn't it just possible that our people are paying a little too much attention to the particular routing and not enough to the general destination.
OPEN IN ADMINISTRATIVE PUNISHMENT.
New Jersey provides an example of speedy justice that if followed generally might have a beneficial effect in diminishing crime. Two men held up and robbed the cashier of a tile plant of $1,600. Later in the day one of the men was captured. He was taken into court and within forty-eight hours after the robbery was committed was sentenced to ten or fifteen years and was on his way to prison.
Of course, detection of criminals is a necessary preliminary to conviction and imprisonment. A court can not pass a sentence until the accused is present. Our means of pursuing and capturing violators admit of vast improvement in efficiency. Yet inadequate sentence after a culprit is caught tried and convicted not only discourages efforts to apprehend criminals, but also encourages offenders to continue prosecuting their enterprises in the hope that, even if caught, they will suffer lightly. Swift prosecution, too, is not less needful than certainty. In other lands the accused are brought to speedy trial. Here often there is great delay which adds a needless expense on the public and is an injustice to the prisoner. If he is not guilty.
The great number of crimes committed certainly offers proof that improvement is both possible and desirable. The Jersey speed is to be commended as the right course to be pursued when the culprits are in custody.

Some Tired Business Men Simply Won't Wake Up

Some tired business men simply won't wake up.

FRANCE, A LIMITATION PROBLEM.
Latest word from France relative to her attitude at the coming armament limitation conference at Washington is that she is now willing to discuss reduction of her army, and indeed is anxious to do so, provided she is given that guarantee upon which she has insisted right along. In his invitation to the powers, President Harding said "while, in the discussion of armament, the question of naval armament may naturally have first place, it has been thought best not to exclude questions pertaining to other armaments." In the present race for the biggest navies France is not a competitor. Her latest naval budget is most moderate. She has also been reducing her army until it is smaller today than it was in 1915.
But she is willing to make even further reductions if she can be shown that no danger will result. The United States, Japan and Great Britain have the big navy budgets. Our alleged justification is that of general defense, but can any of these three powers show that it needs a great navy more than France needs an adequate army?
"Any form of assurance that is concrete and satisfying," we are told, will cause France to improve the principle of reduction of land as well as naval armaments. The United States has lately reduced its army materially. "But," says France, "you are not menaced by a powerful next door neighbor. You believe in action will come by the sea and so you are building up your fighting fleets."
Although it has not received much attention in preliminary, unofficial, discussions, France will be one of the foremost problems of the disarmament conference.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.
[By Dr. James Ball Naylor.]
A POSITION FOR POETS.
Poets have always been looked upon as in a class by themselves.
Penury has been considered their proper portion.
Always they have been regarded as dreamers, not doers.
Novelists and artists have always depicted them as spare of form—stout-shouldered, long-haired, pale-faced.
The poet has been expected to brood in a garret—and hatch out verses, to feast on crumbs—and be content.
For the poet to be rather lazy and shiftless, and wholly lacking in common sense and practicality, has been thought in keeping with the eternal fitness of things.
The typical poet has been the world's standard butt of ridicule.
But it now appears that at last the poet is to come into his own.
One lucrative and soft position, at least, has been provided for poets. For a few fortunate poets, at any rate, their happy, hazy dreams are to come true. And this realization of poetic dreams is a wonderful manifestation of cultural altruism in a world cursed with crass and sordid commercialism. Selah!
Marion Le Roy Burton, president of the University of Michigan, is the good fairy who has waved his wand and brought this remarkable condition about. Dr. Burton announces that Robert Frost, a poet from somewhere "North of Boston," has been selected as the first lucky versifier. And what is Mr. Frost to have? Five thousand dollars a year. Five thousand dollars—think of it! More money than any simon-pure poet ever possessed before! And what is Mr. Frost expected to do, to earn the money? He is expected to spread culture broadcasts among the students of Ann Arbor—but not by the ordinary classroom methods, mind you, but "through the medium of personal contact."
Isn't it lovely?
Doesn't it speak well for our modern educational ideals and ideas?
I should say so!
Mr. Frost won't have to toil in the class room, and recite—"When the Frost is on the Pumpkin." All he'll have to do is to strut around the campus and show the pumpkin that's on Mr. Frost.
There's only one drawback to the scheme—so far as Mr. Frost is concerned. He'll get to hold the sinecure only one short term; then he must get up and get—leave his place to another fortunate.
Dr. Burton says:
"The student body will benefit immeasurably merely by contact with a great and loving personality. We desire only that the artist shall be merely a human being."
I'm going to send in my application.
I can get in touch with the student body just as well as any one can. And I'll not neglect to touch the students—and the professors, too, for that matter—for all they're worth.
I hope Walt Whitman, Edgar Guest, James Montague, Ted Robinson—of any other of the numerous journalistic verse-smiths—doesn't fore-tell me.
In that case—well, there wouldn't be anything left for me to touch.
We are strictly in favor of everybody donning a new hat—Houston Post.
A brand-new hat, just think of that.
And suit and shoes and shoes!
These cost so much in these hard times—
We've nothing left for boots!
The ultimate consumer has as much voice in the suit situation in West Virginia as he usually enjoys in controversies affecting his comfort and security.—Washington Star.
The ultimate consumer's voice is a wee small voice crying from a wide wilderness of woe.
"Undertakers To Come Under Fire!" screams a headline.

MANSFIELD ON SATURDAYFinal Arrangements Being Made for State Gathering.Final arrangements are being completed for the Ohio Typographical conference, which will convene in Mansfield, Saturday and Sunday, October 6 and 7. The committee in charge is now assured of a large and enthusiastic attendance. From every section of the state comes the word that all printorial eyes are being focused on the "Trunk Line
City" and arrangements under way to attend the important function, says the Mansfield News.Never, perhaps, in the history of the Ohio conference have so many international officers announced their intention of being present. The list includes: John McFarland, of Indianapolis, international president;
J. W. Hayes, of Indianapolis, international secretary-treasurer; Walter W. Barrett, of Chicago, international first vice president; James J. Hoban, second international vice president and president of the Cleveland Typographical union, and Max S. Hayes, of Cleveland, business representative for this district.The presence of these men, with their wide experience in things typographical and knowledge of economic and industrial conditions, is sure to add much to the dignity and interest of the conference.Many prominent and notable visitors are also expected. Among them will be a member in continuity since 1878, who has worked at the printing trade in nearly every country on the globe, and who is capable of reading proofs in English, Latin, Greek, French, German and Hebrew.The conference will open Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Trades Council hall, room No. 2.
Mayor Henry G. Brunner will deliver the address of welcome to the visitors, and George W. Biddle will follow with an address. The conference will reconvene Sunday morning at 8 o'clock in the main assembly room of Trades Council hall, and will continue in session until all business is transacted. Dinner will be served at 2 o'clock at the Southern hotel, and a special program of instrumental and vocal music will be given in connection with the banquet. Members of the Mansfield local are all expected to attend the sessions and participate in the banquet.Little interest is being manifested at this time in the annual election of officers, but the selection of a city for the next conference is expected to create a spirited contest.Living will be worth while in Vernon Heights. 261-8Keeps

used to it. I bet if my father worked in a rubber factory like Dunt's does in the stink factory my mother would be used to it like Dunt's mother is. I was almost afraid to go in to breakfast this morning when I had milked the cow and her dotter for fear my father might give me a licking after all,
because the house smells kinda rubberish yet, and my mother says every dud in the house smells like burnt rubber. So me and Jubilee walked kinda soft and easy and swunk up till my father was gone.

Stringy said his neck never would be as good as it used to be after the way I popped it yesterday when he sat on my head and pushed my face in the dirt. I said I was sorry.
I told him that. I did not like to get in fights because I did not know how quick and strong I really am and I was afraid I might hurt someone sometime. He stretched his neck and said I already had hurt somebody. I bet he will not moun-key with me any more. My mother said I would have to wear shoes and stockings pretty soon, but I told her none of the rest of the bunch are wearing them except Hopper, and Hopper is our crib and he always wears at least a stocking on his short foot.We gathered up what was left of our rubber tire and went around to the different folks' houses with it, but their mothers are all like my mother and none of them would let us melt it. And then we cut a lot of it up fine and built a fire in Red'sbackyard and put some in a can on the fire but the can melted apart before the rubber melted and Red's father come out and soaked our fire and said we had made stink enough to drive a dog out of a tan yard.
Maybe if we boil it in water we can skim it off when it is melted. I guess that is the best scheme. I asked my grandfather and he said it might work. He said he found a rubber tree down South when he lit
the war and taped it and got a bucket full of sap and he laid down on his back and dipped his feet in the air till the rubber hardened, and done it a lot of times, and he said that after a while he had a pair of rubber boots that was the best fit he ever had and he did not get his feet wet any more all through the war, and they made his feet so bouncy that he could run faster than anybody. My father says my grandfather is one of the best ground and lofty fliers in the world. Then he made me go to bed so I couldn't listen to him any more.Boys' Smart

ARE PREPARING FOR THE WORLD'S SERIES

Players and Fans Going Through the Old Paces.

LUCKY FANS ARE GETTING THEIR TICKETS

Players Taking Final Practice at Polo Grounds in New York.

New York, Oct. 4.—The world's wildest series is now passing through the old familiar preliminary phases. This morning the lucky fans are receiving their tickets through the mails and the unlucky ones are carrying the baseball magnates and hoping the legislature passes a law prohibiting any more world's series in New York.

The players are taking their final practice at the Polo grounds—the Yankees, this morning and the Giants, this afternoon. The Yankees are brushing up their traveling uniforms for use tomorrow, when they appear for the first time in New York as "visiting team."

Down at the Commodore hotel, Judge K. M. Landis is holding informal court as the various major and minor-league clubowners pay their respects to him and call for their tickets. Garry Herrmann is there too. This time, Garry is just a clubowner. In other years he has been chairman of the national baseball commission, boss of the world's series and prince of entertainers. He is now reduced to entertaining. He certainly can do that.

There will be nearly 500 reporters, journalists, cartoonists and telegraph operators in the enlarged press box tomorrow afternoon. At least that many more applications were turned down. There will be the only complimentary tickets.

The hotels are doing a brisk business, despite the fact that comparatively few out-of-town people could be assured of securing reservations for the game.

VELOCK ON SPORTS

New York, Oct. 4.—Picking a winner of the World's series between the Giants and Yankees is a hazardous, almost foolhardy task to attempt.

The Giants, judging them by all-round ability, have an edge on the Yankees, though it is all on paper.

A Giant victory in the coming series will not surprise the writer though, an out-and-out selection of McGraw's team is not being made here. No World's series in the last five years or so, has offered such a mountain of uncertainty to the "dopester." Both teams have their weak and strong points. Both are possessed of a terrific punch. Each has proved that it can fight and win under fire. Side by side they balance the scales pretty evenly.

Pitching has decided most World's series of other years. It may decide this one. If it does, the Giants are the best prepared to stand the strain of a hard series.

But what will the edge in pitching profit the Giants if the Yankees start to slaughtering the slants of McGraw's men. Or what if the prolific bats of the Giants, six of whom are .200 hitters no matter whether Smith or Snyder is used behind the bat, crash through the offerings of Carl Mays and Walter Hoyt.

Looking at it from this angle, ability to make the hit count may have more to do with the decision in favor of the team that gets the fewest hits than slugging on the part of the slappers.

"Habe" Ruth, naturally enough, looms up as a big question mark for the Giant pitchers to solve. Take him out of the lineup and New York fans would make the Giants prime favorite. The Big Bam may break up the best pitched ball game at any stage. Nobody knows this any better than McGraw and it goes without saying that Ruth will probably get a base on balls if the Giants are in a tight place. It's all in the game and the Yankee pitchers have the same prerogative.

It can be said in favor of McGraw's team that the Giants have a better seasoned and better primed pitching staff today than the Yankees. In Nehg, Toney, Douglas and Harner, McGraw has a mighty capable quartet. Behind these men are Salage, Ryan and Shea.

Manager Huggins has his one big ace—Carl Mays—a game and brilliant young slapper in Walter Hoyt and a dangerous and wily veteran, when he is right, in Bob Shawkey. But Shawkey isn't at his best. Old Jack Quinn, Harry Harper, Percy and Collins stand behind these twirlers. The Giants haven't looked at a submarine delivery such as Mays uses and will undoubtedly find it troublesome, but Art Nehf, in form, stands an even chance to take Mays' measure.

Compared to the Yankees the Giants are superior in fielding and base running. They play a more diversified game on both attack and defense than the men of Huggins. Once they start getting men on the bases, McGraw will send them around, for the Giants can run the winks. The Yankees, on the other hand, have the habit of slugging their men around the sacks. Can they do it in this series? Figures for the season show that the Yankees excel in run making but they have made but five more hits than the Giants and in a tight series the supposed bulge of the Hugmen at bat may fail to materialize.

McGraw, as compared with Huggins, is a seasoned world's series campaigner and a seven-time pennant winner in his own league. As a strategist he has shown himself to be superior to the midge manager in the way he handled his team this season. Huggins knows ball players and how to develop them, but he is untried as a World's series field general.

The series, from all indications, promises to be a battering affair. Both teams will have their fighting clothes on. Victory means something between $6,000 and $7,000 apiece for the winning players and both are familiar with the Polo grounds, so neither will have an edge in this respect. Also, the rivals will be playing to "home crowds" and each will have a world of support.

McGraw has always been partial to the slugging game. The hit and run is his favorite method of attack, but he can mix 'em up when the occasion arises. The science of slugging, incidentally, is a second nature with the Yankees and players like Ruth, Peck, Meusel and Pipp are big stumbling blocks for any pitcher to face. Yet, you never can judge what a player will do in a world's series by what he has done during the regular season. More often some comparatively obscure player turns up as a battling hero. So, no matter which way you turn in sizing up the rival teams, a stone wall of uncertainty confronts you.

In comparing the regular players, man for man, the teams balance up pretty evenly, although the Giants are stronger in the box and behind the bat.

At first base, with Kelly and Pipp to be considered, it looks like a standoff. Pipp has a shade in fielding and is a mighty dangerous batter. Kelly, from whose ashen war club singles, doubles, triples and homers have bounced consistently all season, is nearly as good a fielder and a heavier hitter.

As second base, Aaron Ward may be given a slight shade over Johnny Rawlings, but at shortstop Peck and Hancock offer another stand-off.

Both are flashy fielders, good hitters and quick thinkers, who have had long experience. Frank Frisch janks above Mike McNally as a third baseman. He is a better hitter and base runner and though he seems to require more effort in holding hard hit balls toward the hot corner, he gets 'em and he has a wonderful arm.

In left field, Babe Ruth, because of his terrific mauling, gets the call over Emil Meusel. Meusel is the better fielder of the two, however, and a dangerous hitter at all times. George Burns, one of the best fielders in either major league and a wonderfully consistent hitter, outranks Elmer Miller of the Yankees in center field. Miller holds this particular position as well as Burns, but he has not had the experience and does not come up to Burns as a swabman.

Ross Young on patrol duty, offers another stand-off. Both Meusel and Young are consistently good in the right garden. Both can play balls hit of the high wall accurately and it is a coincidence that the last batch of batting averages showed them hitting .325 each.

In the catching department, the Giants have the edge. Smith and Snyder, both hitting better than .320, are good big marks for pitchers heady generals behind the bat and good fielders. Both can cut down runners at second with deadly regularity and the slow-footed Yankees will do well not to tempt their arms.

Schantz, the veteran and young De-ronner are Huggins' catching assets. Because of his long experience, Schantz will probably catch every game for the Yankees and thus he stands practically alone as against two of the best back stoppers in the National league.

Grows So Fast It Is Hard To Realize What It Has Been.

Plans for improving Marion
the adoption of an adequate to include a building code, adequate width and proper connections, car
water extensions, parks,
churches and zoning, were
at the monthly meeting of the Marion Real-estate board Monday noon at the busy bee cafeteria. "We have grown so fast that it is hard to just what our growth has been," Mr. Palmer said, "and now time to prepare for future
providing these things necessary for a well built city."

be given by K. W. Schell.
The request it was postponed
meeting next month.

Suit Needs.
Persons who build homes have designed to suit the needs of families that are going to occupy them," Mr. Palmer said.
You build a house you do
the piano in the kitchen, tub in the parlor and the bedding appliances in the bed room. These things are placed in as planned for them and the e planned to suit the con-
of the occupant.

That is the very thing that is the building of a city. Fig-speaking the piano is put kitchen, the bath tub in the
and the dish washing appli-
the bed room.

Marion is one of the best examples of that sort of city building.
ing out of its streets follow-paths of least resistance, the city and as a result Marion of culture and education, is one of the worst laid-out systems in the country.
ing plans ordinarily are suit the needs of the times.
ally some additional space
ed for expansion, but where not done the walls and the er of the building are so ed that additional floors added as growth requires.
the provision that is made future in the construction of Side-walk Idea.

y plan would bring out the idea. In Marion we go a street and find one house to the sidewalk and the obscurely twenty feet back of it. The man with the home
the sidewalk has a fine yard
the children can play and to privacy of his front.
The man with the house
walk has no privacy on his as no yard and the fact that is so close to the street inwith his neighbor. A city ould guarantee a certain of frontage for lots, a cer-count of yard and also guarinvestment of the man
the property.

building code also would be
by a city plan. We have no code now. One would like buildings, wiring and
g. eliminate the fire hazard
a wooden shingle and bring e insurance rate. The state shal now is trying to get an passed in every city in the prohibiting the use of the shingle and substituting a of shingle. It would greatly anger of fire and thereby re-insurance rates.

Acceptance of Plans.
One of the most vital things in the acceptance of new plans. Some d not with the idea of present and not for future growth
the street, park, water, sewer provisions are not made.
other thing to consider is Marion we have two of secondary business districts
up. You do not want a store in every block. We and they cause a depre-
in the value of the residence on each side. A zoning system, restricting business to certain sections, would be included in a city plan and would assure you that the vacant lot next to your residence would not be sold for the construction of a factory."

NEW OPERA STAR BORN IN FRANCE CONSIDERS SELF AMERICAN

One of the most interesting recruits to the singing force of the Metropolitan Opera company this season is Miss Yvonne d'Arle,
who was born in France but came to this country
when two years old. It was less than a year ago
when Miss d'Arle
took part in a review at the Palais Royal, where she was the youngest singer. The late Sylvester Rawling, music critic, happened to be among the diners and heard her sing. He was so impressed with the beauty and strength of her voice that he rushed over to the Metropolitan Opera house and told Mr. Gatti-Casazza, the manager, of his great find. Mr. Gatti went to the cabaret and was convinced. The result was the engagement of another young American singer. Although born in France, Miss d'Arle considers herself an American. Seven years ago, when only seventeen years old,
she joined the New York Opera company and sang Carmen for three months on one-night stands.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In appreciation of the prominence that has come to Marion, and as a lasting expression of our loving esteem, we the citizens of Marion, through the leadership of our Chamber of Commerce and interested citizens, have formulated plans for the building of a magnificent and commodious hotel in honor of our greatest citizen, friend and neighbor—

President
Warren G. Harding

Marion is fast becoming a metropolitan center. We are no longer a country village. We are a city and known to the entire world as "the President's home." We should have suitable hotel quarters for a presidential party, and a hotel home to which our President could bring his guests with a feeling of pride. We owe this honor to President Harding and the city of Marion needs this hotel.

HOTEL HARDING

This hotel and its beautiful furnishings will cost approximately $600,000 and will be eight stories high, reinforced concrete construction, fire-proof, 160 rooms with baths. More complete details will follow this announcement, and illustration of hotel, with its floor plans will be published.

HOTEL MANAGEMENT We are more than pleased to announce that Mr. Charles T. Gauvey, selected as the Hotel Company's Manager, is a man broadly known to the traveling public, and a man of superior executive ability with a host of loyal friends. Mr. Gauvey, whose photograph appears above, is now the manager of the new "Shawnee" Hotel, of Springfield, Ohio. Not only has he an enviable reputation and large acquaintance, but we may mention incidentally that he has also, shown a large profit earning for his stockholders. Formerly he was identified with Algonquin and Beckel Hotels, Dayton, Ohio, "Sloan" of Sandusky, the "Breakers at Cedar Point, and the Columbia and Euclid hotels of Cleveland.

BUILDING PLANS There will be no delay in the building of this hotel. The location selected is the corner lot, 80 x 200 feet, at Center and Orchard Streets. Mr. William Earl Russ, architect, has now completed the plans of the "Hotel Harding" and working in consultation with the manager, Mr. Charles T. Gauvey, so as to carry out all details desired by the new management. Mr. Russ assisted in designing the "Shawnee" hotel now managed by Mr. Gauvey, also the "Sinton" hotel, of Cincinnati, the "McCurdy" hotel, of Evansville, Ind., the "Seeltack, of Louisville, Ky., and other well-known hotels. Mr. Russ was also consulting architect in the building of the "McAlpin" hotel of New York City.

CITIZENS! This Project Needs Your Help

This $600,000 hotel for the city of Marion is assured if the people of Marion will pledge $175,000 toward the investment. The Chamber of Commerce pledges $125,000 making a total of $300,000 the entire capital stock of The New Hotel Company, and banking interests provide the additional $300,000.

Marion through its Chamber of Commerce announce that the members will give one or two special weeks to the "Hotel Harding Project" and several weeks, if necessary, as Marion must have this hotel and can raise $175,000 easily in a short time by each person contributing their share. The plan is made easy. You can pledge the amount and make monthly or time payments, pay cash, or give a satisfactory bankable note.

Now Citizens, we appeal to your Civic Pride and love for your President. The City of Canton, Ohio, built the "McKinley" hotel to their President. Are we not able on these most favorable terms to build the "Hotel Harding" and commemorate the name of our President and fellow citizen.

Let everyone come forward voluntarily and do his or her share in this project. AN INTERESTING BOOKLET describing and illustrating the hotel and giving the financial plan will be found at all the banks in Marion, and are for free distribution. Don't fail to get a booklet at your bank.

EVERY BANK IN MARION WILL ACCEPT YOUR FUNDS

Every Bank in Marion has been made a depository for these funds. You can make your pledge at your own bank, which the Chamber of Commerce wants each citizen to do, without being urged or called upon. If notified, our representative will be pleased to call upon you.

A campaign or drive will soon be made by teams and committees, and "Hotel Harding" buttons will be given on making pledge, indicating that you are to be a "Stockholder" of the New Hotel Company, and have subscribed.

SCHOOL BOARD TO ISSUE BONDS TO PAY OVERDRAFT

Which Now Amounts to Over $90,000.

THAT IS ONLY WAY OUT OF IT, AS MEMBERS SEE IT

Will Get This Year $100,000 Less Than Expected—New Teachers Elected.

Election of six new teachers, appropriation of $100 for the purchase of raw stock for the vocational department, purchase of shades for the north Main building, authorization of the purchase of equipment for the Vernon Heights Junior High school and a discussion of the financial condition of the board occupied the attention of the board of education at its regular meeting Monday night in the Harding High school building.

Discussion of finances centered principally about the $90,000 overdraft in the tuition fund, as reported in an annual financial statement made by E. T. Smart, clerk-treasurer of the board. It was the consensus of opinion of the board members that the only way to care for the overdraft is to issue refunding bonds and it was decided that the finance committee meet within a few days to prepare recommendations for a refunding bond issue to be presented at the next regular meeting of the board.

Mr. Smart stated that County Auditor B. C. Decker had informed him—the board this year will receive $100,000 less than the salary schedule and expenses of the board last year indicates will be needed for the schools. He added Mr. Decker said every effort is being made to keep this year's tax rate within that of last year and expressed the intention of cutting the board for a conference to discuss its budget.

New Teachers Elected.
New teachers elected and the places where they have been assigned are: Mildred Price, Olney avenue; Martha Turner, Central Junior High; H. C. Drake, Vernon Heights Junior High; Mrs. E. A. Thiele, Vernon Heights Junior High; Henry Mann, Pearl Street departmental; and Dennis Hymen, Silver street.

For Raw Material.
An appropriation of $100 for the purchase of raw material for the vocational department was voted. A. W. Baltholomew, director of the department, stated that the pupils have been using scraps given the shop by a number of Marion manufacturers. He estimated the cost of raw material for the shop at $150 a year and said the use of this metal is to instruct the pupils to the point where they can do work for outside shops. He stated some of the shops already have expressed the desire to furnish pieces for completion by the students and will pay for the work and hopes in this manner to make the department as near self-supporting as possible.

Warner & Edwards Company was awarded the contract for furnishing shades for the north Main street building on its bid of $65.92 for forty shades of unfilled cloth. Other were presented by Frank Brothers Company at $75.66 for unfilled cloth and Harold Williams at $68.90 for filled and $79.30 for unfilled cloth. All bids on forty shades.

The supply committee was authorized to purchase a piano, maps, dictionaries and other necessary equipment for the Vernon Heights building. Properly approved bills were ordered paid and requisitions for supplies from the various departments and offices were allowed.

Dr. H. R. McVay announced that an "Opportunity" school has been established in the Mark street building and is, under the direction of Mrs. Carrie Durr. He reported that the class is doing very good work.

and presented a request from the instructor for the purchase of a small room for the school. The purchase of the room was authorized.

NEWSPAPER GRIND AS IT REALLY AND TRULY IS

And Not as the Movies Would Make It Appear.

Young William Brown wishes to enter the newspaper game.

"Why?" asks the editor to whom he had applied.

"Oh, for the excitement and the fun, I guess," replies Willie Brown. "and the thrills and the joy of getting a scoop. Journalism is a wonderful thing."

Now William Brown expects the editor to roll over and turn a somersault in a fit of joy, saying: "I've been waiting a long time for an ambitious young man like you—a young man who wants to get a scoop right off the bat. When can you come to work?"

Instead, the editor frowns dubiously upon the word "journalism" and exclaims: "Dah! The excitement and fun idea with some exceptions, is a fallacy. And the newspaper business is a daily grind instead of a daily thrill—unless you're born to it. And as far as scoops, they are rare. You have a moving-picture idea of the newspaper business, young man."

To the average outsider, newspaper work is a complete mystery, shrouded in such terms as "scoops," "beats," and "stories." Most people have picked up those terms in their reading and in the movies. That is the extent of their knowledge.

The game is "X"—an unknown quantity.

Reporters are regarded alternatively as snoopers, rough-necks and important personages. Some doors are always open to them; others are slammed in their faces.

For your benefit here are some questions and answers having to do with the profession:

Q. Do reporters carry big, leather note-books? A. No, they write on the backs of envelopes or on cheap copy paper, folded in.

Q. Do reporters write the stories they get and get the stories they write? A. In smaller towns they practically always write and obtain their own stories; in larger cities they often telephone in their stories.

Q. How long is a story? A. Any length.

Q. Can you pay to keep a story out of the paper? A. No.

Q. What kind of news is not printed? A. Vulgar stories and those involving children who have committed minor crimes.

Q. What does the city editor do? A. He directs the reporters.

Q. Is the city editor always a grinch? A. In the movies.

Q. What does a reporter look like? A. What's the price of an automobile?

Q. Are reporters paid for the amount of news they write? A. No; by salary. If many of them were paid by space, a bread-line would have to be established.

Q. Do reporters stand on street-corners waiting for things to happen? A. No; there are established sources of information, such as hospitals, fire stations, city offices, etc.

Q. Why does the editor always throw my poems away? A. They are probably rotten.

Q. What is a "nose for news"? A. An organ of a born newspaper man.

Q. Are "scoops" made very frequently? A. No.

Q. Are newspaper offices always a scene of confusion? A. In the movies.
